

Register today

ArtWorks-NH

6th Annual Artist Exchange

Thursday, October 2, 2008

Calling all artists, artisans and craftspeople: maximize your marketing efforts and expand your network!

The 6th annual ArtWorks-NH Artist Exchange will offer marketing workshops featuring local experts. These sessions will cover market research, planning and effective promotional strategies for artists. Pre-selected artists will also present their business case studies; their marketing challenges will be discussed by a panel of experts and the audience.

Thursday, October 2, 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM
Currier Museum of Art / 150 Ash Street / Manchester, NH

The registration fee includes a gourmet boxed lunch, refreshments and admission to the Andy Warhol: Pop Politics exhibit.
$45 MicroCredit-NH members / $55 non-members

Visit www.microcreditnh.org/artworksnh to register online or call 1-800-769-3482!

Sponsors:

ArtWorks-NH is managed by MicroCredit-NH, a non-profit program of the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund.

Postcard Art by MicroCredit-NH Group Members: Clockwise L to R: Glass vase, Joe Forrestall, Anderstall Artworks, Bow; silver pendant, Carol Babineau, Art Clay Studio, Nashua; stained glass, Bill McDonald, McDonald Stained Glass and Fused Glass Jewelry, Hooksett; "Highbush Blueberry" print, Kathie Fife, Artemis Natural Resource Designs, Canterbury; "The Sound that Moths Make," Sheryl Chatterton, A Brush With Life, Allenstown; jewelry, Malori Anderson, Anderstall Artworks, Bow.

Photography by Jay Reiter, Newmarket, NH;
a MicroCredit-NH member

A program of NH Community Loan Fund
7 Wall Street • Concord, NH 03301
www.microcreditnh.org/artworksnh